

TUOMO LOUHIVUORI

PROFILE

Senior Technology Executive with extensive experience in successfully leading multibillion-dollar international businesses, building diverse high-performing teams, creating new business areas, and executing transformation. Deep understanding of services business and technology sector with special focus on providing mission critical solutions for customers operating in all industries.

Proven track record of delivering business results and continuous improvements by harnessing emerging technologies to drive digital transformation while leveraging the already made investments. Experienced in working with Private Equity owners and using mergers, acquisitions, and divestments to accelerate turnarounds. Rare combination of sales leadership, technical and security skills with the ability to use them to identify and execute growth opportunities.

EXPERIENCE

Kyndryl 2021 – present	General Manager, Customer Engagement and Solutions
Enerim 2021 – 2024	Independent Director, Board of Directors
IBM Corporation 2017 – 2021	General Manager, Complex Technical Solutions Vice President, Cloud Integration and Hybrid Cloud Services
EVRY 2016 – 2017	Executive Vice President, Group CTO
Tieto Corporation 2006 – 2016	Vice President

Earlier positions

Earlier in career experience from CIO and software development roles in the Nordics and Europe.

EDUCATION

Master of Science, Industrial Engineering and Management / Computer Science Lappeenranta University of Tech, Finland	Supplemented with executive programs in institutions like MIT Sloan Executive Education, IESE Business School and Stockholm School of Economics IFL executive education.
---	--